

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

Join us as we turn back the clock to Colonial America as Genesis School celebrates GEORGE WASHINGTON DAY!

Genesis School students in Grades PK-5 will celebrate George Washington Day on Friday, February 23rd. The celebration will take place at the East Campus on Mitchell Ranch Road beginning at 9:05 a.m.

- Please join us as our students become colonial actors to perform an outdoor play which depicts the incredible and inspirational life of George Washington.
- Visit General Washington's Headquarters at Yorktown, and walk through the military encampment to hear the Revolutionary War soldiers and patriots tell the story of America's founding.

- Are you smarter than a Genesis student? Take a quiz about the history of the 13 Colonies and the brave men and women who risked their lives to form a new, free nation.
- Walk along our colonial street to enjoy demonstrations of early American trades, cuisine, games, and crafts.

HOW TO LOOK LIKE A COLONIAL!

PARENTS: We'd like all students to be in colonial dress for the Celebration. The costumes DO NOT have to be elaborate.

Guidelines for Basic Costumes:

Girls: Long dresses, or long skirts with white blouses
Boys: Dark slacks tucked into white knee-high socks, white shirts

To add more to costume, if wanted:

Girls: Shawls, vests, aprons, scarves, hats
Boys: Vests, long coats, white neck ascots, scarves
